The screenshot shows the 'Services' page on the Towson University website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Towson University' on the left and 'Suggestions | Logout' on the right. Below this is a sub-navigation bar with 'Dashboard', 'Services', 'Groups', and 'Account'. The main heading is 'Your Services', followed by 'SMS (Text Messaging)'. There are two rows of service entries, each with a green checkmark and the word 'Active'. The first row shows a phone number '443- [REDACTED]' with links for 'Make Inactive' and 'Delete'. The second row shows a phone number '443- [REDACTED]' followed by '(Verizon Wireless)' and the same 'Make Inactive' and 'Delete' links. Two purple arrows point from the right side of each row towards the 'Make Inactive' and 'Delete' links.
