GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Towson University (hereinafter "University") herein contracts for the services of Artist (and its individual performers, if any) as (an) independent contractor(s) and not as (an) employee(s). Individual performers shall be deemed the employees of Artist. Payment shall be made to Artist or to Agent (as set forth herein), and Artist shall be responsible for compensating individual performers, unless the University agrees in writing to make payment directly to individual performers. Artist shall be responsible for complying with applicable state and federal law and Internal Revenue Service regulations pertaining to the withholding of taxes, and for complying with any applicable union or federation rules, including those pertaining to deduction of dues and to health and welfare violations.
2. Artist will be allowed reasonable access to the facility used for the engagement before and after the engagement for the purposes of assembling and removing Artist's equipment, as set forth more specifically in Section 23 ("Additional Terms"), below.
3. Artist shall have the sole responsibility for the payment of any and all royalty fees payable as a result of the performance of any copyrighted materials, including but not limited to music, performed pursuant to this Contract. Artist shall indemnify and hold the University harmless for the failure of Artist to pay royalty fees due hereunder pursuant to the copyright laws of the United States or any other country.
4. Artist shall obtain and maintain at the Artist's expense, comprehensive general public liability insurance coverage for injury, death, and property damage claims arising from its wrongful or negligent acts or omissions in performing this Contract. Such insurance coverage shall have limits of not less than $1,000,000 per occurrence. Such insurance policy or policies shall name as co-insureds the University and the University's trustees, officers, agents, and employees, and shall contain provisions that such coverage shall not be canceled or reduced in amount except upon fifteen (15) days' written notice to all named insureds. The University shall be furnished with a copy of the policy or a certificate of insurance at least twenty (20) days prior to the first engagement scheduled pursuant to this Contract.
5. Artist shall indemnify and hold the University harmless for all costs to the University resulting from the wrongful or negligent acts or omissions of Artist in the performance of this Contract.
6. Artist shall have sole responsibility and liability for any damage to or loss of Artist's equipment used in performance of this Contract.
7. University shall employ or subcontract the services of all stagehands, stage carpenters, electricians, electrical operators and other support personnel required for this engagement. Therefore, the support personnel provided hereunder will not be subject to the national or local union or guild requirements. Artist shall be responsible for notifying unions and guilds of the terms of this Contract.
8. University shall have the sole responsibility for and control of security when the engagement takes place on University premises. Artist shall comply with the University's regulations and with all federal, state and local laws, regulations and ordinances applicable to Artist's activities and obligations under this Contract.
9. University shall exercise reasonable care to prevent the recordation, reproduction, or transmission of the performance of Artist, in the absence of a specific written agreement with Artist to the contrary. Any agreement to permit recordation, reproduction, or transmission of such performance shall be written, and either contained in or attached to this Contract as a rider.
10. University shall provide or pay for only those items or services specifically indicated in this Contract. No additional costs for items or services will be borne by the University without its prior consent, specifically written herein or attached hereto as a rider.
11. University shall not, under any circumstances, be required to indemnify or hold Artist harmless for any claims, losses or liabilities of any kind, and any provision to this or any other contract purporting to impose such liability upon the University shall be null and void.

12. Neither party shall be responsible for complying with any provision of this Contract or rider(s) to this Contract when prevented from complying with such contractual provision due to an act of God or any other legitimate condition beyond the control of such party.
13. No employee of the State of Maryland, or any department, commission, agency or branch thereof, whose duties as such employee include matters relating to or affecting the subject matter of this Contract, shall become or be an employee of the party or parties hereby contracting with the State of Maryland or any department, commission, agency or branch thereof.
14. The parties hereto will not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religion, creed, age, sex, marital status, national origin, ancestry, or physical or mental handicap unrelated in nature and extent so as reasonably to preclude performance of such employment.

16. If Artist fails to fulfill Artist's obligations under this Contract properly and on time, or otherwise violates any provision of this Contract, University may terminate this Contract by written notice to Artist. The notice shall specify the acts or omissions relied upon as cause for termination. University shall pay Artist fair and equitable compensation for satisfactory performance prior to receipt of notice of termination, less the amount of damages caused by Artist's breach. If the damages are more than the compensation payable to Artist, Artist will remain liable after termination and University may affirmatively collect damages.
17. This Contract may be terminated by University in accordance with this clause whenever University shall determine that such termination is in its best interest. University shall pay all reasonable costs associated with this Contract that Artist has incurred up to the date of termination and all reasonable costs associated with termination of this Contract. However, Artist shall not be reimbursed for any anticipatory profits that have not been earned up to the date of termination.
18. The validity, interpretation and effect of this Contract shall be governed by the laws of the State of Maryland, without respect to conflict of laws principles. Further, the laws of the State of Maryland shall govern all rights, obligations, remedies and liabilities arising pursuant to this Contract. The terms and conditions of this Cultural Event Contract, and the rights, privileges, duties and obligations arising pursuant thereto, shall be controlling in the event of conflict and at all other times and in all events and situations.
22. All additions to and deletions from this Contract (including any riders attached hereto) must be initialed by both parties in order to be valid. This Contract (including any riders attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein) represents the complete and final expression of the agreement between the parties. The parties will be responsible only for those items expressed in this Contract, irrespective of any additional or contrary oral or written statements or representations.
23. Additional terms and conditions:
