Article X – Amendments

Amendments to this constitution may only be made by a two-thirds majority vote by the SCO. Any SCO member may bring about suggestions for amendments. All amendments are subject to SGA approval.

Amendment #1

The Sport Clubs Organization have removed it's membership cap of twenty-five clubs. The SCO will continue to add new clubs until it decides it no longer has the facility space, funding or a combination of both to support the creation of additional clubs.

Amendment #2

Clubs wishing to provide instructors/coaches a stipend for their services will be afforded the opportunity to do so on a semesterly basis.

- There will be a set $500 minimum for a coach's stipend per semester.
- There will be a set $3,000 maximum for a coach's stipend per semester.

Clubs are required to pay for instructors/coaches through their general account and must include an additional 9% Benefits fee. In order to be paid, instructors/coaches must follow the guidelines set in Chapter IV, Article B, Section 1 of the SCO Handbook. The Assistant Director for Competitive Sports and each individual club reserves the right to cancel or retain instructors/coaches providing agreed services outlined in the Coaches Agreement Form for that academic year. All paid coaches must have an annual review with the Assistant Director for Competitive Sports to determine if his/her contract will be renewed the following year.
