

Paroxysm Performance Notes

There are deliberately no pedal markings in the score. Therefore pedaling should be done with great discretion by the performer. One can think of playing this piece as almost, but not quite, staccato. It is also very important that the rhythms are very precise. This is to ensure that the rhythmic integrity of the piece is maintained and the counterpoint is very audible.