

I. Honors College Curriculum Committee

The Honors College Curriculum Committee consists of 12 faculty appointed by the Dean of the Honors College in such a way as to assure that the six degree-granting Colleges of the University are represented equally. The Dean will also appoint two students of the Honors College. In addition, the Dean and the Assistant Dean of the Honors College will serve as an ex officio members. The duties of the Honors Curriculum Committee are the following:

1. To evaluate for approval proposed honors courses.
2. To evaluate for approval changes to existing honors courses.
3. To inform the University Course Approval Reporting Committee of such action.
4. To forward approved proposals to the Registrar.

II. Honors Course Approval Procedures

New Honors College Gen Ed courses (no existing non-Honors counterpart)

1. Department Curriculum Committee
2. College Curriculum Committee
3. Honors College Curriculum Committee
4. General Education Reporting Subcommittee of the University Curriculum Committee

New Honors College version of an existing Gen Ed course

1. Departmental Chairperson's approval (we also recommend, but do not require, review by the departmental curriculum committee)
2. College Dean's Approval
3. Honors College Curriculum Committee
4. General Education Reporting Subcommittee of the University Curriculum Committee

New Honors College Seminar carrying general education credit

1. Departmental Chairperson's approval (we also recommend, but do not require, review by the departmental curriculum committee)
2. College Dean's Approval
3. Honors College Curriculum Committee
4. General Education Reporting Subcommittee of the University Curriculum Committee

New Honors College Seminar not carrying general education credit

1. Departmental Chairperson's approval (we also recommend, but do not require, review by the departmental curriculum committee)
2. College Dean's Approval
3. Honors College Curriculum Committee
4. Course Approval Reporting Committee