Summer Jobs in Actuarial Science

"Recruiting, Retaining, and Honoring a World-Class Workforce to Serve the American People."

The U.S. Office of Personnel Management is seeking college students to be actuarial interns for the summer of 2012.

Interns will:

- Work with the Federal Employees' Health Benefits Program (FEHBP), the world's largest employer-sponsored health insurance program
- Perform background analysis that involves millions of dollars and affects thousands of individuals and their families
- Earn a competitive salary, working full-time
- Have flexible hours (arrive between 7:30 am and 9:30 am)

Interested candidates must have:

- A Highly Analytical Mind: Students majoring in analytical topics such as mathematics, economics, or the physical sciences are well-suited for the work.
- The Ability to Communicate Well Over the Phone: Some of your time will be spent communicating by phone with actuaries, finance officers, vice presidents, CFOs and other health plan officials.
- A 3.3 (out of 4.0) Grade Point Average
- A Serious, Professional Attitude Towards Your Work
- Ability to Work and Think Independently
- U.S. Citizenship
- Availability to Work May 21 through August 15, 2012

To apply for the position, please send a resume and unofficial transcript to Rebecca Harris at actuary@opm.gov by March 2nd, 2012.
