

Towson University
Department of Music
Announces
C. James Velie Memorial Scholarship
Spring, 2012

DEADLINE: Noon, Monday, February 13, 2012
COMPETITION: Friday afternoon February 17, 2012
APPLICATIONS AVAILABLE at www.towson.edu/music

Click on "Current Students" and follow the link to scholarships.

The C. James Velie Memorial Scholarship was founded to honor and memorialize a man who made a vital contribution to the cause of Music Education in Maryland. After having taught music in Baltimore County, Mr. Velie became the first music supervisor in the Baltimore County School System in 1937. Through this scholarship we wish to continue his influence as a meaningful force in Music Education today.

Guidelines for the Selection of the Candidates for the C. James Velie Memorial Scholarship

- Students shall be full-time sophomores, juniors or seniors enrolled as a Music Education Major in the College of Fine Arts and Communication.
- Students shall complete a formal application and submit the application to the chairperson of the C. James Velie Scholarship Committee.
- Students shall have a minimum of 3.0 grade point average.
- Students shall obtain recommendations from two faculty persons in the area of music.
- Students shall audition before the C. James Velie Scholarship Committee and participate in a brief interview.
- Students will be asked to perform 2 selections of differing styles and participate in a brief interview with the committee.
- Students should supply their own accompanist. If this is a problem, please notify the chair of the committee, Dr. James Anthony.

Selection of winners will be based on faculty recommendations, need, musical performance, grade point average, and commitment to and potential for success in the field of Music Education. Candidates will be notified of the audition date. Selection is made regardless of race, sex, national origin, religion, age, marital status, and condition of handicap.