Application for Collegiate Membership 2003-2004

Membership Deadline: Applications must be postmarked by Feb 28th to be considered active for the current school year. (To ensure receipt of all journals, applications must be postmarked by October 31)

Section A: To be completed by student applicant.

Please print. Return application with your payment to your chapter advisor. Application must be signed by chapter advisor. Failure to complete application properly and remit correct dues will result in a delay of processing the membership, thus delaying receipt of benefits and services from MENC: The National Association for Music Education and your state music educators association. All mailings are sent directly to the mailing address provided on this application. Collegiate membership benefits expire June 30.

I hereby enroll for collegiate membership in MENC: The National Association for Music Education.

MENC Collegiate Membership Benefits and Services

As part of membership, each collegiate member of MENC receives a membership card, MENC periodicals Music Educators Journal and Teaching Music (October through May), and the periodical issued by the state association.*

Upon presentation of a collegiate membership card and payment of a collegiate registration fee (if applicable), collegiate members may attend MENC conventions and may participate in the meetings and activities of their state association by complying with the registration requirements. (Individual applications for collegiate membership will not be accepted at conventions or meetings. Collegiate membership must be active prior to the event.)

MENC Collegiate members receive a 25% discount off the regular price of all MENC resources including publications, videos, and other awareness items. In addition, graduating collegiate members have the opportunity to receive regular MENC membership at a special introductory rate in the year of or immediately following their graduation. See MENC's Web site (www.menc.org) for other member benefits.

* The periodicals issued by the state associations are sent directly from the state associations. MENC is not responsible for supplying the states' issues.

Collegiate Membership 2003-2004 Dues Schedule

MENC Collegiate membership dues are based on the state affiliation. The amounts below are combined national and state dues for the 2003-2004 school year. To find the correct amount to send for each MENC Collegiate membership enrollment, refer to the state in which your MENC Collegiate chapter is located. Rates expire June 30, 2004.
