

EVENTS FOR THE WEEK OF NOV. 3, 2009

THESE EVENTS WERE ANNOUNCED AT THE LAST SGA MEETING...

- The Towson University Transfer Student organization (TUTS), a brand new student group, is holding an interest meeting on Friday, November 6th at 5:00p.m. in the University Union, room 306. Interested in advocating for the transfer student population on campus? Be there!
- Also on the 6th, Housing and Residence Life is hosting the Amazing Race at Towson! Teams of four can e-mail Mark Droter at mdrote1@students.towson.edu to sign up for a chance to win a GPS system for each person on the winning team!
- The next Study Break with President Caret is going to be held in the SGA Office (UU226) on Monday, November 9th at 3:30p.m. Stop by and speak first hand with Towson's president! Stop by the SGA Office to sign up.
- Also on November 9th, make sure you stop by the Potomac Lounge any time between 8:00a.m. and 8:00p.m. to donate blood for the CAA Blood Drive!
- On November 18th, the SGA will be holding a Diversity Forum from 8:00p.m. to 11:00p.m. in the Potomac Lounge. Come by and let your voice be heard when it comes to issues of diversity on campus.
- Want to go to New York? Your Campus Activities Board is hosting a trip on December 5th! Thursday, November 5th tickets go on sale at the box office on the first floor of the University Union. Tickets are ten bucks for TU students and you MUST be present to buy your own ticket! Questions? E-mail Morgan Moultrie at mmoult2@students.towson.edu.
