

Article I—Name

The name of this organization shall be the Towson University Community Vegetable Garden.

Article II—Purpose

The purpose of the club shall be to establish a student-run vegetable garden on the campus of Towson University, the purpose of which will be to introduce and engage the student body as well as the greater Baltimore Metropolitan community with the growing field of sustainable urban agriculture. To the highest degree possible, all garden activities will be oriented toward community involvement and enrichment. The product of the garden will be donated to the Assistance Center of Towson Churches' weekly dinner for homeless and needy families in the Towson area, with whom we have an established relationship. Further, the club will develop a strong relationship with local primary and secondary schools seeking to provide their students with unique educational programs focused on health and wellness. Finally, the garden will serve as a place in which undergraduate students intern, gaining hands-on experience in sustainable gardening practices and community outreach.

Article III—Membership

Any fee-paying student enrolled in Towson University with at least a 2.0 GPA may become a member of the Towson University Community Vegetable Garden with voting rights and office holding privileges.
